Stephanie Inn Dining Room Server Promoted to Dining Room Manager

Megan Miller continues to advance at Martin Hospitality

Cannon Beach, Ore. – Martin Hospitality staff member, Megan Miller, was recently promoted from dining room server of the Stephanie Inn Dining Room to manager. She will oversee the complete operation of the dining room, including staffing, purchasing and the management of their award-winning wine program, ultimately making sure guests have an exceptional dining experience.

Miller grew up in Portland, Oregon, graduated from Southridge High School and continued her education at Linfield College in Mc Minnville, Oregon. She achieved a bachelor's degree in Health Education. She began her hospitality career at Jake's Famous Crawfish in 2001 and went on to McCormick and Schmick's Harborside in 2006 serving as a floor manager and event coordinator.

In 2008, Miller moved to Cannon Beach, joining Martin Hospitality as assistant manager of The Lumberyard Rotisserie & Grill.

"I am excited to take on the challenge of providing world-class service and maintaining the high standards associated with the Stephanie Inn Dining Room," said Miller. "My favorite thing about hospitality is both providing and enjoying an exceptional dining experience from start to finish. There is nothing better than a great meal shared with great friends.”

For over 30 years, Martin Hospitality has specialized in creating lasting memories on the Oregon Coast through their award-winning inns, resorts and restaurants in Cannon Beach and Seaside. Martin Hospitality manages the world-renowned Stephanie Inn, appearing multiple times in Conde Nast Traveler and named as one of Travel + Leisure’s World’s Best Hotels. Martin Hospitality also manages the Surfsand Resort, Wayfarer Restaurant & Lounge, Inn of the Four Winds and the Lumberyard Rotisserie & Grill. Martin Hospitality properties are regularly featured in such media outlets as Sunset, Wine Spectator and the Today Show; most recently being named one of the 10 most romantic hotels in the U.S. by Fodor’s. With 240 employees, Martin Hospitality is headquartered at 264 Third Street in Cannon Beach. For more information, visit www.martinhospitality.com.
